BIOGRAPHY

From humble beginnings at a young age, family and friends knew Zack Rosicka was destined for something great. When he was 12 his grandfather gave him a Stevie Ray Vaughan CD. "As I started listening, I was blown away. I immediately ran and got my father to listen with me and I replied, this is what I am going to do." The following year he received his first guitar before his 13th birthday. "I just never put it down; it became my release and outlet."

At 14 Zack Rosicka began going to local blues jams and within months he was hired into a local band. Within a year of picking up the guitar Zack Rosicka began playing professionally! He was not just good; he was playing with local legends and doing more than holding his own. After playing in many groups, he founded a group that would win countless awards and open for ZZ Top, Trace Atkins, Jimmy Wayne, Kenny Wayne Shepherd, Double Trouble, Joe Bonamassa and various other International acts.

Six years later Zack Rosicka moved back to his hometown of Destin, Florida and formed the Zack Rosicka Band. In less than six months Zack Rosicka Band was performing all over the gulf coast and beyond. Currently 27 years of age, Zack performs over 156 shows a year as either a solo artist or a power trio. For 13 years now Zack has been awing audiences with his developed sound, seasoned skills, defined style, and powerful stage presence.

Zack Rosicka is a force to be reckoned with in the world of music!
